

From Pastor Jessica

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The following came to me as I thought of hands that did some difficult and merciful work a few weeks ago; hands that showed care and compassion; hands that will never be the same.

“Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands -- O prosper the work of our hands!” ~Psalm 90:17

Blessed are the hands that plant the seed and harvest the crops.
Blessed are the hands of those who care for those who can no longer care for themselves.
Blessed are the hands of the one who teaches with word and action.
Blessed are hands that help deliver the calf or foal.
Blessed are the hands which do the work no one else wants to do.
Blessed are the hands that get dirty and calloused in their service to others.
Blessed are hands that toil day and night.
Blessed are the hands from whom the healing work of God flows.

Blessed are the hands that comfort the child that cries.
Blessed are the hands that change the diaper and clean up the mess.
Blessed are the hands that embrace the youth that seeks strength and courage.
Blessed are hands that guide the young along the path of light and life.
Blessed are hands old and wise.
Blessed are the hands that support those who are bowed down.
Blessed are hands that console the broken hearted.

Blessed are hands that pray for the world.
Blessed are hands lifted in supplication, praise, and thanksgiving.
Blessed are hands that reach out for reconciliation and forgiveness.
Blessed are the hands that grasp the hands of another in love.

Blessed are His hands that broke the bread.
Blessed are His hands that shared the cup of salvation.
Blessed are His hands that were pierced.
Blessed are His hands on the cross encompassing the world.
Blessed are His hands that welcome us home.

Our hands are instruments for God’s work. The labor of our hands benefits not only us, but others as well. When words fail, often our hands can speak for us. May God prosper the work of our hands.

“Christ has no body now, but yours. No hands, no feet on earth, but yours. Yours are the eyes through which Christ looks compassion into the world. Yours are the feet with which Christ walks to do good. Yours are the hands with which Christ blesses the world.”- Teresa of Avila

Confirmation year concluding

Our confirmation students will be heading to Fargo on Saturday, May 7, for their final service project of the year. The group will be doing some work at the Great Plains Food Bank. Other youth and adults are welcome to go along. If interested, please call Theresa at the TCM office in Binford so that adequate transportation can be arranged.

Six young people are completing the confirmation studies and will be affirming their baptism during services in May and June.

Lutheran Church of McVile — May 8
Amanda Dinger

First Presbyterian of Cooperstown — May 22
Megan Motter

Trinity of Binford — June 19

Chelsea Ellefson from the Ottawa congregation did her confirmation classes with TCM, and will be confirmed at Ottawa.

With the 2010-2011 confirmation year drawing to a close, thoughts are now moving to our confirmation program for next fall.

Parents of students who will be entering the program and parents of students who will be going into their second year of confirmation classes are strongly encouraged to attend a meeting for discussion of next year's program.

The meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 4, at Trinity in Binford. It will begin at 7:00 p.m. If you're unable to attend but have questions, please contact Pastor Jessica.

May 1 is Rogation Sunday in TCM.
